Mr. James E. Smith

Dear Jimmy:

This is just a note to tell you what a pleasure the association with you has been and how sorry I am to see you leave the International Cooperation Administration. I genuinely appreciate the fine spirit of cooperation in which you worked with all of us here in the solution of our mutual problems.

I certainly hope that with the springtime coming upon us soon we will at least be able to get together for some tennis.

With best wishes.

Faithfully yours,
